ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This report on crime and arrests in Oregon for the calendar year 1979 was prepared jointly by the Planning and Data Analysis Unit of the Oregon Law Enforcement Council and the Law Enforcement Data System, Executive Department. The publication is the sixth annual analytical report prepared from statistics collected and compiled by the Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting program of the Law Enforcement Data System and analyzed by the Oregon Law Enforcement Council.

This report was prepared and published with financial assistance from the National Criminal Justice Information and Statistics Service, Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, United States Department of Justice.

ABSTRACT

This report is an in-depth analysis of criminal offenses and arrests reported in Oregon during 1979.

Contained herein, on a statewide basis, are detailed data regarding Index and Part II offenses under the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting categories including month, day of week, and time of occurrences, location of offenses, and types of property stolen. Arrest statistics reflect age, sex, race and degree of charge.

This report also includes additional data regarding Index and Part II offenses and a comparison of arrest charges for juveniles versus adults (felonies, misdemeanors, violations).

Other comparisons include Index Crime Rates for Oregon's 14 administrative districts and 36 counties. Also included, in tabular form only, are types of offenses, clearances, and arrests for each reporting agency in Oregon and type of arrests by age grouping for each of the 36 counties.

SUMMARY

In 1979, the total crime rate in Oregon rose 5 percent over 1978. The rate was 13,300 offenses per 100,000 population. Index crime (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, arson) accounted for 48 percent of the total crimes reported and the rate for Index crime rose 6 percent. Part II crimes (all remaining categories of crime) rose 4 percent.

Specific offenses that have shown a continuing increase over the past several years are: rape, assault, sex offenses, disorderly conduct, vandalism, shoplifting, forgery and fraud, and theft of motorcycles.

Specific offenses that have shown a continuing decrease over the past several years are: residential burglary, automobile theft, and arrests for drug abuse.

Specific offenses that have remained relatively stable over the past several years are: murder, robbery, non-residential burglary, theft from buildings, and arrests for DUII.

The total number of arrests made in 1979 rose 6 percent over 1978--due mainly for crimes involving theft. The number of juveniles arrested rose only slightly while the number of adults arrested increased by 8 percent. The median age of persons arrested in 1979 was 21 years compared to age 20 in 1978.

A survey of selected law enforcement agencies shows that 18 percent of the received calls, activities, and complaints relate to Index crime; 19 percent were related to Part II crimes; and the majority (63 percent) were mainly non-criminal in nature such as: rendering assistance, animal problems, and accidents. For the selected agencies, the population served rose by 3 percent while the total calls and activities increased by 18 percent. The greatest increase (+24 percent) came in Part III activities (mainly non-criminal).

The data in this report (based on offenses reported to the police) show that the loss value in stolen, damaged, or destroyed property as the result of crimes committed was over $96 million in 1979.

OREGON AT-A-GLANCE*

Oregon, central state of the Pacific group, is bounded on the north by Washington, on the east by Idaho, on the south by California and Nevada and on the west by the Pacific Ocean, and lies between 42 degrees and 46 degrees 15 minutes, north latitude; and 116 degrees 45 minutes and 124 degrees 30 minutes, west longtitude.

Oregon originally included Washington, Idaho, and parts of Montana and Wyoming, with an area of 286,541 square miles. The width east and west is 395 miles, and the length north and south is 295 miles. Oregon was admitted to the Union on February 14, 1859, and the 33rd star in the flag was added for the state on July 4, 1859.

COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY*

Growth of diversified manufacturing in recent years has been changing Oregon's largely resource-oriented economy, which historically has been heavily dependent on forest and agriculture products as the basic foundation.

Forest products, including lumber and plywood and paper and allied products, continue to be Oregon's leading industry. The harvesting and processing of timber into a wide variety of products accounts for over 43 percent of the state's more than 4,600 listed manufacturing establishments, about 73 percent of its manufacturing employment and slightly less than 30 percent of the value added by all of the state's manufacturing industry.

From 1958 to 1976, the value added by all manufacturing increased from $1,222 billion to $5,392 billion. During this same period, value added by the forest products industry increased from $0.660 million to $1,499 billion.

The relative position of the forest products industry has been lessened somewhat by the growth of other kinds of manufacturing and the growth of service industries.

High technology industries, primarily electronics or computer related durable goods, constitute the fastest growing sector of manufacturing. Employment has increased 89.9 percent from 1966 to 1977 in this area, and some forecasts indicate one out of every four new manufacturing jobs in Oregon over the coming years will be in the electronics industry.

Oregon's annual farm sales are more than $1 billion. The total impact of agriculture, including food processors and handlers, is estimated at over $3 billion a year. This places agriculture's importance to the state's economy second only to forestry and forest products.

Tourism is another important contributor to Oregon's economy. The impact of spending by tourists from out of state is felt on a number of industries and activities, including retail and wholesale trade, services and transportation.

OVERVIEW OF OREGON CRIME REPORTING AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

INTRODUCTION

This is the sixth annual report of criminal offenses and arrests produced by the State of Oregon since the beginning of the Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program (OUCR). OUCR is an incident based reporting program, tailored to the needs and operational procedures of the police agencies in Oregon.

Incident based reporting requires the recording of specific information about each criminal event known to the police. A criminal event may be reported to a police department by a victim or other source or discovered as a result of police operations. Any reported criminal incident that is determined to be unfounded through subsequent police investigation is deleted from the counts.

The Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program requires the reporting of all criminal offenses defined as "Part I and Part II Crimes", and the reporting of all arrests for such offenses. Law enforcement agencies also report the clearance of such offenses by arrests of persons or other means. The number of persons reported as arrested includes all persons reported as physically arrested, summoned or cited by police agencies during 1979.

The OUCR system provides reporting agencies with the capability to record statistics on activities handled by the agency that do not constitute criminal events. It also allows the agency to record and report additional attributes of both criminal events and activities such as the location within the jurisdiction or time of day of the occurrence.

Reporting agencies submit the recorded data monthly to the Law Enforcement Data System either on provided forms or magnetic tape. The data is then processed in a computerized system and reports reflecting the monthly activity of each agency are produced and returned to the contributor for their use.

As agency reports are processed each month, data required for the FBI National UCR Program is extracted. When all agencies have been processed, a magnetic tape containing UCR data for all Oregon incident reporting agencies is mailed to the FBI.

In Oregon, the offense of Arson was reported as a Part II offense since January 1, 1975. By national decree, Arson became a Part I/Index crime on January 1, 1979.

Definitions of the offenses, clearances, and arrests are included in Appendix A of this report.

REPORTING JURISDICTION

Reported offenses relate to the jurisdiction in which they occur. The arrest and clearance, in every case, is attributed to the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred, even though the arresting agency may not be the department originally reporting the offense. State Police and County Sheriffs have concurrent jurisdiction in all counties of the state. Their reports generally apply to criminal offenses and arrests occurring in those areas outside incorporated cities which have municipal police departments.

DEGREE OF REPORTING

During 1979, offense and related supplementary information, including arrest data, was received from 141 municipal and other police departments, 36 county sheriff departments and the Oregon State Police, who have provided offense and arrest information in all 36 counties. In 1979, the number of agencies participating in the OUCR program represented service to 99 percent of the state's population.

The Portland Police Bureau reported both Part I and Part II information in summary form, and because of the summary method, statistics relating to certain Part II detailed data and type of article stolen do not include that agency.

USE OF OUCR

Only crimes known to the police will be included as part of the official crime rate. Thus, under-reporting of crime can have a significant impact on crime rates and also on the evaluation of the effectiveness of crime reduction programs.

Substantial evidence is contained in reports on criminal victimization surveys which indicates that reporting rates are highly stable among most social groups and across different geographical areas. This suggests reported crime can be a good indicator of crime patterns and trends.

While it is apparent that crime information reported to the police does not provide a complete picture of the crime situation in our society, it is compiled and analyzed because of the following reasons:

a. Reported crime information is used by the police agencies for resource allocation and determining appropriate agency responses to occurrences.

b. Reported crime data, recognized as a portion of the total crime, is, in fact, a highly accurate measurement of occurrences in society that must be addressed by the criminal justice system.

c. This system is based on definitions which are standardized (uniform) across the nation and it is unlikely that it will be appreciably altered in the forseeable future.

INTERJURISDICTIONAL COMPARISONS

Care should be taken in drawing conclusions and making decisions about problems based solely on crime and arrest data as reported by different law enforcement jurisdictions. Factors relating to crime reporting practices, law enforcement policies, population characteristics and attitudes all contribute to variation in reported data.

Some general factors which may affect the amount of crime reported and type of crime committed are:

- Density and size of the community population and the metropolitan area of which it is a part.
- Composition of the population with reference particularly to age.
- Economic status, education, and recreation characteristics of the community population.
- Relative stability of the population, including commuters, seasonal, and other transient types.
- Climate, including seasonal weather conditions, and other geographical variations.
- Religious characteristics of the population.
- Effective strength of the police force.
- Policies of the prosecuting officials and the courts.
- Attitude of the public toward law enforcement problems.
- The administrative and investigative follow-up of the local law enforcement agency, including the degree of adherence to crime reporting standards.

LAW ENFORCEMENT IN OREGON

Municipal police departments have full police powers within their jurisdictions including the investigation of crime, enforcement of state criminal and traffic laws and city ordinances.

County sheriffs exercise general law enforcement authority in their respective counties enforcing state criminal and traffic laws, and county ordinances. Sheriffs departments generally confine their law enforcement services to areas not served by municipal police departments. Sheriffs may provide law enforcement services to incorporated municipalities on a contract basis.

The Oregon State Police have full law enforcement authority. They may conduct criminal investigations and enforce state laws anywhere within the State. However, they generally function outside of incorporated cities except when assistance is requested by a local police agency. State Police have primary responsibility for patrol of interstate freeways, the state highway system, and enforcement of fish and game laws. Occasionally, patrols are also provided on county roads.

The Department of State Police also provides support services to municipal and county departments upon request. These include crime laboratory services, fingerprint identification, criminal records, questioned document examination, polygraph service and specialized investigation teams for arson and narcotics investigations.

Law Enforcement employees - 1979

The Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program also includes the collection of data relating to the number of full-time employed police officers and civilian personnel. There were 5,840 full-time law enforcement employees reported in 1979 as illustrated in Table 1. This represents a decrease of 0.2 percent in the total of all personnel in municipal police agencies, sheriffs departments, and the State Police from 1978.

Male employees accounted for 77.5 percent of the total employees. The total number of male employees decreased by 0.5 percent in 1979 while the number of female employees increased by 0.8 percent. Sworn officers accounted for 76.3 percent of the total work force with the remaining 23.7 percent being full-time civilians.

Of the 4,525 total male employees, 94.2 percent were sworn officers and 5.8 percent were civilians. Of the 1,315 total female employees, 14.3 percent were sworn officers and 85.7 percent were civilians. Using the total state population of 2,544,000, the number of law enforcement employees per 1,000 population was 2.3. The number of sworn officers per 1,000 population was 1.75. The number of sworn officers showed a very slight increase over 1978.

COURTS

During 1979, there were forty-three Justice Courts with misdemeanor and traffic jurisdiction. Twenty-six counties had district courts, with circuit courts providing service to all 36 counties. Circuit courts have jurisdiction in all felony criminal matters. The State Court of Appeals and the State Supreme Court provide service at the appellate levels.

During 1979, 28,414 felony cases including appeals, 96,511 misdemeanors and violations including appeals, and 747,321 traffic cases including appeals were filed in the state court system.[1]

[1] Data from Judicial Administration in the Courts of Oregon - 25th Annual Report, State Court Administrator, 1978.

Child Welfare and the prevention and control of juvenile delinquency is a joint responsibility of the State of Oregon and its 36 counties, working in conjunction with private agencies. Oregon's circuit courts, and in some cases, county courts, have exclusive jurisdiction in cases involving persons under 18 years of age whose actions may be in violation of a law and/or ordinance.

Juvenile courts and departments are essentially involved with the juvenile correction process. Referrals made by law enforcement officers, parents, relatives, neighbors or any interested party may result in an informal or formal hearing, followed by dismissal, supervision or detention, depending on a referral cause and the needs of the child. The juvenile department, under the auspices of the circuit court or county court, is responsible for disposition of all delinquency cases.

CORRECTIONS

At the state level the Corrections Division of the Oregon Human Resources Department is responsible for all adult offenders sentenced to penal institutions or placed under the supervision of parole and probation. In 1979, the Division received 1,692 offenders committed to institutional custody. This represented a 6.1 percent increase over 1978. The number of offenders sentenced to supervision on probation increased by 25.3 percent from 4,035 in 1978 to 5,056 in 1979. On December 31, 1979, the Division had 3,120 inmates in actual custody, plus another 107 housed in work release facilities and 263 out for other reasons, for a total inmate population of 3,383. An additional 12,573 persons were under parole or probation supervision, including 809 being supervised in Oregon for other states, and 1,042 Oregon offenders being supervised by other compact states. The Oregon Parole Board ordered the release of 1,727 inmates on parole in 1979. This represented an increase of 3.4 percent over the 1,671 persons paroled in 1978. Persons returned to custody from parole increased by 83 percent from 343 in 1978 to 629 in 1979.

In addition to the State Corrections Division, six counties were participating in Community Corrections programs under the Community Corrections Act. County participation in the program has been excellent. Those counties were: Washington, Clackamas, Multnomah, Marion, Polk, and Yamhill. In 1976 and 1977, 52 percent of the Class C Felons committed to state institutions were from these counties. Six additional jurisdictions have joined the original six for the 1979-81 biennium. They are: Benton, Clatsop, Columbia, Tillamook, Union and Wallowa Counties. This brings the population of counties involved in full participation CCA plans to nearly 1.5 million citizens, or 59 percent of the state's 2.4 million people. Only four counties, comprising less than 1 percent of the population, remained involved in neither a full participation or regional manager plan. Hence, the impact of community corrections affects nearly everyone in Oregon to some degree.

From a total appropriation of $15,585,021, the Division, through the State Community Corrections Advisory Board, has awarded $8,352,158 in enhancement funds and $1,359,986 in mental health funds to the twelve participating counties for 1979-81. In addition, Regional Managers' Plans have claimed $2,687,241 for enhancement of parole, probation, and presentence investigation services and $917,483 in mental health funds. This totals $13,316,868. Of this total appropriation, $1,688,281 was dedicated to probation center operating expenses.

Responsibility for state programs dealing with juvenile delinquency, welfare and other needs of children is vested in the Children's Services Division of the Department of Human Resources. The division operates two training schools, two work-study camps, a juvenile parole and community service unit, administers subsidy funds distributed to county juvenile departments, certifies foster homes and child care agencies, and purchases group treatment and care from private child care agencies and family foster care from families.*

SECTION 2

STATEWIDE OFFENSE AND ARREST DATA

INTRODUCTION

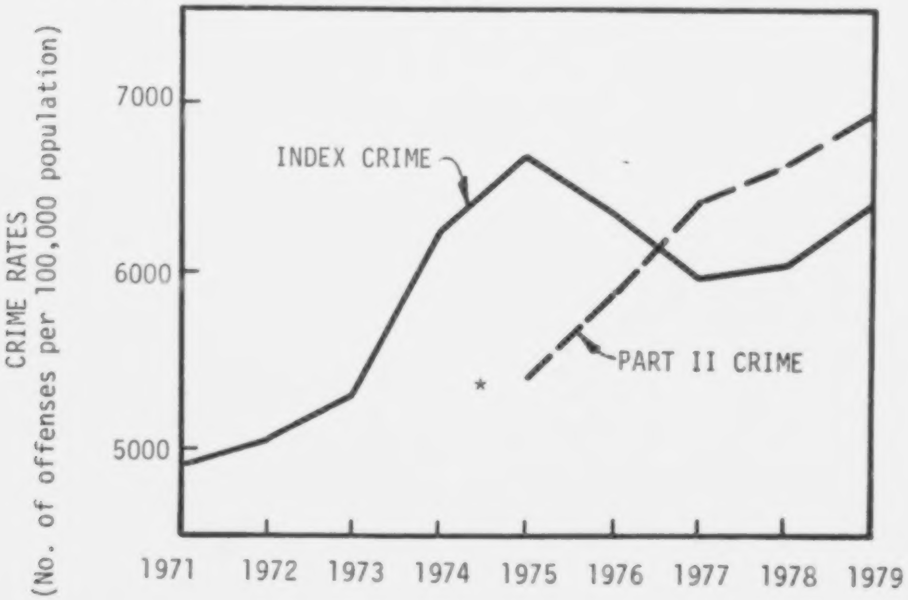
This section presents the number of criminal offenses and arrests reported by police agencies in 1979. The statistics represent the aggregate of all reporting agencies within the state, except when noted, and are arranged in the following five subsections:

1. Overview of offenses.
2. Overview of arrests.
3. Detailed information regarding Index and Part II offenses.
4. Data regarding other types of calls for service.
5. Data concerning assaults against police officers.

The statewide offense totals in this section are not identical to those shown in Section 4 of this report. The differences are less than 1/2 of one percent and are the result of two different and separate methods of compiling the data at two different points of time. This difference is not significant enough to affect the overall results.

OVERVIEW OF OFFENSES

- The total crime rate in 1979 was 13,300 offenses reported per 100,000 population.
- This reflects an increase of 4.8 percent over 1978.
- Index crime rate (6,407) increased 5.6 percent.
- Part II crime rate (6,893) increased 4.1 percent.



*Part II crimes not reported prior to 1975

Nonresidential Burglary--Introduction

- The nonresidential burglary rate was approximately 226 per 1,000 business units which includes schools and public buildings.
- The rate was 8 percent higher than in 1978 but was 20 percent below the rate in 1975.
- The rate indicates that one out of every 4.4 business units in Oregon in 1979 was involved in a nonresidential burglary.
- The rate is more than likely lower than what has been calculated. The reason being that, as an example, a chain store such as Safeway or Fred Meyer is counted as one unit, when in fact there may be 50 or 60 outlets throughout the state.

OVERVIEW OF TOTAL OFFENSES AND ACTIVITIES FOR SELECTED AGENCIES

Included in the Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program is an option for police agencies to report types of calls for service for other than criminal offenses (called Part III), including such activities as traffic accidents, disturbances reported, animal problems, alarms, and, in general, any type of report to a police agency for non-criminal problems.

A sampling of police agencies that report all Part I, II and III activity was compiled for this report and included in the following by three groupings: Sheriff's Departments (six departments serving populations ranging from 88,055 to 220,349); Group I Police Departments (seven police agenices serving populations ranging from 15,300 to 90,000); and Group II Police Departments (nine police agencies serving populations ranging from 4,460 to 11,250). As with Part I and II offenses, Part III activity definitions have been included in the Appendix. Traffic partrol or citations are not included in the data.

Figure 32 depicts the increase in the number of offenses and activities from 1978 to 1979 for those selected agencies in comparison with the increase in population those agencies serve.

- Total offenses and activities increased by 18 percent while the population served increased by only 3 percent.
- Part III offenses and activities showed the largest increase (up 24 percent).

- Larceny offenses represented the highest single percentage of activities.
- Rendering assistance to other agencies and the public constituted the second highest volume of activity followed by: checking suspicious persons, traffic accident investigations, and animal problems.
- In total, Part III calls and activities represented 62.7 percent.
- Part II calls and activities represented 19.1 percent.
- Part I calls and activities represented the remaining 18.2 percent.

- Sheriff's Departments showed the highest percentage of volume of offenses/activities for Part I crimes (25.2 percent).
- Group II - Police showed the highest percentage of volume for Part III activities (77.2 percent).
- 22.3 percent of the offenses/activities volume for Group II - Police involved rendering assistance to other agencies and the public.

SECTION 3
OFFENSE DATA
BY
ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND COUNTY

INTRODUCTION

Oregon is divided into fourteen administrative districts for two purposes: (1) to provide a system for state agencies to use in planning and administrating areawide programs and (2) for providing the Governor with an administrative tool for planning and evaluating the use of state and federal resources.

The following crime statistics are presented by districts to provide information relevant to local planning of criminal justice programs and for comparisons and analysis of trends.

The type and volume of offenses vary from district to district as do the influencing factors that contribute to the commission of crimes and the circumstances surrounding them. Factors such as population density, population characteristics, and geographic location must be considered in attempting to analyze the variance in crime rates among the fourteen districts in Oregon.

For the purposes of this report, the district data has also been combined into two regional areas: Western Oregon (west of the Cascade Mountains, including Districts 1-8), and Eastern Oregon (east of the Cascades, including Districts 9-14). Western Oregon is more densely populated than Eastern Oregon with a topography consisting mainly of forest, timberland and agricultural areas. It receives most of Oregon's annual rainfall. In contrast, Eastern Oregon is sparsely populated with a much drier climate and colder winter temperatures. Its topography consists of timberland and agricultural areas, but also includes high desert and arid land.

SECTION 4

OFFENSES, CLEARANCES AND ARRESTS
BY
DISTRICT, COUNTY, AND AGENCY

The agency statistics concerning Part I and II offenses contained in the following tables was reported to the Oregon UCR program by the individual participating agencies for 1979 and includes totals for each administrative district and county including a total for the Oregon State Police in each county.

The following key is included as an explanation of the abbreviations used throughout the tables:

KEY TO FORMAT ABBREVIATIONS

Months of Reporting	The number of months reported by each individual agency.
Officer Assaults	The number of reported assaults on police officers during the reporting period.
OFF	The number of actual verified offenses or attempts as set forth by UCR guidelines and definitions.
ARR	The number of arrests made during the reporting period. (Includes any arrests made during this period for offenses reported prior to 1/1/79. Includes persons cited, summoned, and notified as well as those taken into physical custody.)
CLR	The number of offenses cleared by arrest or cleared exceptionally during the reporting period. (Includes any clearances made during this time for offenses reported prior to 1/1/79.) These are counts of offenses cleared, not persons arrested.

NOTE: When counting arrests, only those arrests which are made for an agency's "own" cases are counted for UCR purposes. For example, if Agency A makes an arrest on a warrant for Agency B, Agency B counts the arrest for UCR purposes. Agency A does not count it. For this reason, the number of arrests shown in this report will not necessarily agree with the statistics within a department which may show all arrest activity.

APPENDIX A

OFFENSE DEFINITIONS
OREGON UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

APPENDIX A

INTRODUCTION

An offense, under Oregon law (ORS 161.505 - Revised 1974) is defined as: "Conduct for which a sentence to a term of imprisonment or to a fine is provided by any law of this state or by any law or ordinance of a political subdivision of this state. An offense is either a crime or a violation."

A crime is described as an offense for which a sentence of imprisonment is authorized and is either a felony (maximum sentence of more than one year) or a misdemeanor (maximum sentence of not more than one year).

A violation is described as an offense designated by statue to be a violation or if the offense is punishable only by a fine, forfeiture, fine and forfeiture or other civil penalty. Violations are not classified.

UCR DEFINITIONS

The FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting program collects and reports criminal offense data for the nation and in many instances reports data for smaller subdivisions of the country. Essential to the maintaining of uniform and consistent data was the establishment of a standard definition of the offenses used in the program. This insures that offenses with different titles under state and local laws are considered and appropriately counted in UCR.

The offense definitions in this publication conform to those published in the FBI 1975 UCR Handbook.*

Part I Offense Definitions

1.a. Criminal Homicide - Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter

Definition - the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

As a general rule, any death due to a fight, argument, quarrel, assault, or commission of a crime is counted as Homicide. One offense for each person willfully killed by another.

Suicides, accidental deaths, assaults to murder, and attempted murders are not counted as Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter. Suicides are not counted in Uniform Crime Reporting. Some accidental deaths are counted as Manslaughter by Negligence. Assaults to murder and attempted murders are counted as aggravated assaults.

*Federal Bureau of Investigation "Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook", United States Department of Justice, January 1975.

1.b. Criminal Homicide - Manslaughter by Negligence

Definition - the killing of another person through gross negligence.

As a general rule, all deaths caused by the gross negligence of another are counted. One offense is scored for each person killed. The death of a person caused by his own negligence is not counted as an actual offense. All traffic deaths are counted and recorded. Those traffic deaths which are found through police investigation to be accidental (without gross negligence) whould be counted as "unfounded."

2. Forcible Rape

Definition - the carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will.

One offense for each person raped or upon whom an assault to rape or attempt to rape has been made. Does not include statutory rape offenses. Statutory rape is defined as the carnal knowledge or the attempted carnal knowledge of a female with no force used and wherein the female victim is under the legal age of consent. Does not include other sex offenses under this category. Statutory rape and other sex offenses are classified and counted as Part II offenses.

3. Robbery

Definition - the taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Robbery is a vicious type of theft in that it takes place in the presence of the victim. The victim, who usually is the owner or person having custody of the property, is directly confronted by the perpetrator and is treatened with force or fear that force will be used. Robbery involves a theft or larceny but aggravated by the element of force or threat of force. If no force or threat of force is used, such as in pocket picking, or purse snatching, the offense must be scored as larceny rather than robbery.

If force is used in the commission of a theft such as in overcoming the active resistance of the victim in a purse snatching, then the offense is to be classified as strong-arm robbery.

4. Aggravated Assault

Definition - an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Assault may be defined as an unlawful attack by one person upon another. Aggravated assault is defined as an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe bodily injury usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or other means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Attempts should be included since it is not necessary that any injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife, or other weapon is used which could and probably would result in serious personal injury if the crime was successfully completed.

The categories of aggravated assault include the commonly entitled offenses of assault with intent to kill or murder; poisoning; assault with a dangerous or deadly weapon; maiming, mayhem, and assault with intent to maim or commit mayhem, assault with explosives; and all attempts to commit the foregoing offenses. Attempt to murder or assault to murder are reported as aggravated assault.

5. Burglary - Breaking or Entering

Definition - the unlawful entry of a structure or dwelling with intent to commit a felony or a theft.

Offenses locally known as burglary (any degree); unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or felony; breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny; housebreaking; safe-cracking; and all attempts at these offenses are counted in UCR as burglary.

6. Larceny - Theft

Definition - the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another.

Larceny and theft mean the same thing in Uniform Crime Reporting. Motor vehicle theft is not included and is counted separately because of the great volume of thefts in that particular theft category.

All thefts which are not part of a robbery, burglary, or motor vehicle theft should be classified in this category regardless of the value of the article stolen. All thefts and attempted thefts are counted.

NOTE: Embezzlement; fraudulent conversion of entrusted property; conversion of goods lawfully possessed by bailees, lodgers, or finders of lost property; obtaining money by false pretenses; larceny by check, larceny by bailee, and check fraud are all to be classified as Part II offenses.

Larceny - thefts are broken down into the following categories:

A. Pocket Picking

Definition - the theft of articles from a person by stealth where the victim usually does not become immediately aware of the theft.

The theft includes removal of such items as wallets from women's purses or handbags and men's pockets and usually occurs in a crowd, public conveyance, or other similar situation to disguise the activity. Theft from a person in a conscious or unconscious state, including drunks, is included. However, if the victim is manhandled or force beyond simple jostling is used to overcome the resistance of the victim, the offense becomes a strong-arm robbery.

B. Purse Snatching

Definition - the grabbing or snathing of a purse, handbag, etc., from the custody of an individual.

If more force is used than is actually necessary to snatch the purse from the grasp of the person, then a strong-arm robbery has occurred.

C. Shoplifting

Definition - the theft by a person other than an employee of good or merchandise exposed for sale.

This violation assumes that the offender had legal access to the premises and thus no trespass or unlawful entry was involved. This category includes thefts of merchandise displayed outside a building as part of the stock in trade such as in department stores, hardware stores, supermarkets, fruit stands, gas stations, etc.

D. Thefts From Motor Vehicles (Except Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts and Accessories)

Definition - the theft of articles from a motor vehicle, whether locked or unlocked.

This type of larceny includes thefts from automobiles, trucks, truck trailers, buses, or motorcycles. It also includes thefts from any area in the automobile or other vehicle including the truck, glove compartment, or other enclosure. Some of the items included in this category of theft are cameras, suitcases, wearing apparel, packages, etc.

Certain state statutes might interpret Thefts From Motor Vehicles as burglaries. For Uniform Crime Reporting these thefts must be scored as larceny.

E. Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts and Accessories

Definition - the theft of any part or accessory attached to the interior or exterior of a motor vehicle in a manner which would make the part an attachment to the vehicle or necessary for the operation of the vehicle.

This category would include theft of motors, transmissions, radios, heaters, hubcaps and wheel covers, manufacturers emblems, license plates, radio antennas, side-view mirrors, gasoline, tape decks, etc. Theft of items being transported in the vehicle should be classified in Category D, Thefts From Motor Vehicles.

F. Theft of Bicycles

Definition - the unlawful taking of any bicycle, tandem bicycle, unicycle, etc.

G. Theft From Buildings

Definition - the theft from within a building which is open to the general public and where the offender has legal access.

Not included are shoplifting and thefts from coin-operated devices or machines as these offenses should be scored in their separate categories of larceny. The category of Theft From Buildings includes thefts from such places as churches, restaurants, schools, libraries, public buildings, and other public and professional offices during the hours when such facilities are open to the public.

Theft from coin-operated machines or pay telephone boxes within open buildings should be counted as Thefts From Coin-Operated Devices or Machines.

H. Theft From Coin-Operated Device or Machine

Definition - a theft from a device or machine which is operated or activated by the use of a coin.

Some examples of such machines are candy, cigarette, and food vending machines; telephone coin-boxes; parking meters; laundry machines; pinball machines; washers and dryers located in laundromats where no breaking or illegal entry of the building is involved.

I. All Other Larceny - Theft Not Specifically Classified

Definition - all thefts which do not fit the definitions of the specific categories of larceny listed above.

This category includes theft from fenced enclosures, boats, and airplanes. Theft of animals, lawnmowers, lawn furniture, handtools, farm and construction equipment are also included, where no breaking or entering of a structure is involved.

The illegal entry of a tent, tent trailer, or travel trailer used for recreation purposes followed by a theft, felony, or attempt to commit a felony should be counted as larceny.

7. Motor Vehicle Theft

Definition - the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Included in this classification is the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle which is defined for this program as a self-propelled vehicle that runs on the surface and not on rails. Examples of motor vehicles are automobiles, trucks, buses, motorcycles, motor scooters, snowmobiles, etc.

Part II Offense Definitions

29. Runaway - (Juveniles)

*NOTE: Suspicion is not a criminal offense in Oregon. Drunkenness and vagrancy were repealed by the 1975 Oregon Legislature and are not longer criminal offenses by statute.

Arrest Definition

For the purposes of UCR, adult persons are considered "ARRESTED": whether by actual physical arrest or the issuance of misdemeanor citations.

Juveniles are considered "ARRESTED" when the circumstances are such that if he or she were an adult an arrest would be made or a misdemeanor citations issued.

Clearance Definition

Clearances by Arrest

An offense is "cleared by arrest" or solved for crime reporting purposes when at least one person is:

1. Arrested;
2. Charged with the commission of the offense; and
3. Turned over to the court for prosecution.

The prosecution can follow arrest, court summons, or police notice. A clearance by arrest can be claimed when the offender is a person under 18 years of age and is cited to appear in juvenile court or before other juvenile authorities. This clearance can be taken even though no physical arrest was made.

The number of offenses and not the number of persons arrested are counted in the clearances recorded.

Exceptional Clearances

In certain situations, police are not able to follow the three outlined steps under "clearance by arrest" to clear offenses known to them. In many instances, police have exhausted all leads and have done everything else possible in order to clear a case. If the following questions can all be answered "yes" the offense can then be cleared exceptionally.

1. Has the investigation definitely established the identify of the offender?
2. Is there enough information to support an arrest, charge, and turning over to the court for prosecution?
3. Do you know the exact location of the offender so that you could take him into custody now?
4. Is there some reason outside the police control that stops you from arresting, charging, and prosecuting the offender?

Examples of exceptional Clearances:

An offense can be exceptionally cleared when it falls into one of the following categories:

a. Suicide of the offender (the person responsible is dead).
b. Double murder (two persons kill each other).
c. Deathbed confession (the person responsible dies after making the confession).
d. Offender killed by police or citizen.
e. Confession by offender already in your custody or serving sentence (this is actually a variation of a true clearance by arrest - you would not "apprehend" the offender but in most situations like this the offender would be prosecuted on a new charge).
f. An offender prosecuted in another city for a different offense by state or local authorities or prosecuted in another city or state by the federal government for an offense which may be the same (you attempt to return him for prosecution, but the other jurisdiction will not release to you).
g. Extradition is denied.
h. The victim refuses to cooperate in the prosecution (this does not "unfound" the offense and the answer must still be "yes" to the first three questions above).
i. For some reason outside your control, an offender is prosecuted for a less serious charge than that for which you arrested him (such as a charge of reckless driving for a negligent manslaughter offense - the offense on Return A remains the same).
j. The handling of a juvenile offender either orally or by written notice to parents in instances involving minor offenses such as petty larceny.

It is recognized that departmental policy in various police agencies permit the discontinuance of investigation and the closing administratively of cases in which all investigation has been completed. The administrative closing of a case or the "clearing" of it be departmental policy, under UCR reporting, does not permit the clearance of an offense by exceptional clearance unless the four questions mentioned above can all be answered "yes." The recovery of proeprty does not give a reason to clear the case for UCR purposes. The clearance of a case for UCR purposes should have no affect on whether or not the department has internal policies as to "closing" a case or discontinuing active investigation on a case.

Part III - Activity Code Definitions

Part III is defined in Oregon as Police Activity, Non-Criminal Complaints and requests for service, etc. from 39 Traffic Crime thru 99 Other, including Custody activity 500 thru 550.

The definitions presented in this section vary from exact and specific to standardized guide lines for code usage.

A number of these codes frequently border on criminal offense circumstances. When subsequent information or investigation uncovers criminal situations, the appropriate offense/arrest entry(s) are required.

39. Traffic Crime (Except DUII)

"Serious Traffic" offenses as defined by the Oregon Motor Vehicle code.

EXAMPLES: Officers from the department are investigating an Injury Accident where one of the participating vehicles fled the scene.

Officers from the department pursue a vehicle for Reckless Driving.

40. Traffic Accident - Fatal

Traffic accidents that result in the death of at least one of those persons involved.

41. Traffic Accident - Injury

Non-fatal traffic accidents that result in the injury of at least one of those persons involved.

42. Traffic Accident - Property damage

Traffic accidents that result in property damage without personal injury.

50. Illegal Alien

Police Activity surrounding circumstances relating to Illegal Aliens.

EXAMPLES: Officers from the department assist Immigration authorities with a search for illegal aliens.

52. Warrants

Receiving warrants as an activity.

53. Stolen Motor Vehicles Recovered for Another Agency

The recovery of a stolen "Motor Vehicle" when the original theft report and case is not from your department.

EXAMPLE: Officers from your department recover a motor vehicle reported stolen by another law enforcement agency.

54. Stolen Property Recovered for Another Agency

The recovery of stolen property (other than motor vehicles) when the original theft report and case is not from your department.

EXAMPLE: Your department recovers property for other agency.

57. Sudden Death/Bodies Found

The finding of a deceased person when the cause of death is of natural, suspicious or unknown circumstances.

If it is later determined that Homicide is involved an additional entry for that particular offense is required.

58. Suicide

The attempt of or the actual taking of ones own life by purposely self inflicted means or circumstances.

59. Other Accidents

Other forms of accidents that are not traffic related.

60. Animal Problems

Circumstances or complaints relating to the care of or actions of animals.

61. Property

The circumstances relating to lost, found or confiscated property. Does not include recovery of property associated with a reported offense by your department or outside agency or jurisdiction.

A citizen reports that a mans' wallet and contents were found on the sidewalk by a grocery store.

62. Abandoned Auto

The circumstance or complaint/investigation of an abandoned auto.

64. Locate Only Auto

The complaint/investigation or search related to a missing auto.

NOTE: If a stolen motor vehicle report is subsequently taken a criminal offense entry will also be required.

EXAMPLE: An intoxicated and confused subject reports his car is "stolen". Your department does not wish to take a stolen report until the victim is more rational. In the meanwhile officers are checking here and there for the auto.

65. Impound Auto

Recording the activity of legally removing a motor vehicle from its location.

EXAMPLES: Your detective division impounds a vehicle involved in a Narcotics case.

A lending institution advises that they have repossessed a local resident's auto.

66. Assistance Rendered

An act or actions taken rendering assistance or service to the public, other law enforcement or governmental agencies that is not specifically covered by other codes.

EXAMPLES: Your department rolls a patrol unit to assist a neighboring jurisdiction with an injury traffic accident.

Your department delivers an emergency message to a local address.

67. Domestic Problems

Complaints or problems of the home and/or family relationships, family beefs, etc.

NOTE: If any criminal offense is determined an additional offense entry is required.

69. Insecure Premises/Security

Citizens reporting and/or officers finding and investigating unlocked or open doors, windows, insecure building, etc.

If it is subsequently determined that a criminal offense is involved an additional entry(s) for the particular offense is required.

70. Suspicious Persons and Circumstances

Complaints, observations, finding resulting from suspicious actions.

NOTE: If any criminal offense is determined and if any arrest is made, appropriate offense and custody entries are required.

71. Public Safety

Situations that relate to problems created by man or acts of nature that present possible danger or potential hazard, etc.

Officers on routine patrol come across a local person known to have a mental problem who is wandering far from home, proper care, and attention.

76. Marine

Complaints relating to boating and water ways.

EXAMPLE: The department receives a complaint that power boats are frequently speeding thru a beach area clearly marked and designated for swimming only.

77. Traffic/Roads

Reports relating to moving traffic, parking, obstructed throughfares, etc. This code should not be used for the recording of traffic citations.

EXAMPLES: A local resident phones to advise that a parked car is blocking their driveway.

The department receives information that a traffic signal is stuck and is not changing colors - traffic is starting to back up.

78. Civil Complaints

Complaints relating to civil matters that may or may not involve the departments presence in an effort to mediate minor disputes or to keep the peace, etc.

EXAMPLES: Your department receives a complaint from a local resident that two other neighbors are involved in a heated argument over possession of apples from a tree growing on their property line.

APPENDIX C

STATISTICAL METHODS

APPENDIX C

STATISTICAL METHODS

CALCULATION OF CRIME RATES

Quite often it is desired to compare the volume of crime occurrence, either totally or by individual offense, over a period of time for a selected group of agencies or jurisdictions. The geographical area being studied will undoubtedly consist of law enforcement agencies of various strengths and serving widely varying sizes of population. An agency equalizing factor must be developed, or in other terms, a common denominator is needed. To arrive at a valid comparison, the concept of rate is utilized.

The crime rate is defined as the number of offenses occurring per 100,000 population over the period of one year. The common denominator for any community, county, district, or state is obtained by dividing the population represented by 100,000. Once this denominator is determined, it becomes a relative constant until such time as the population of the community, county, district, or state changes appreciably. The crime rate can be calculated then by dividing the number of offenses by the denominator.

a. Population - 100,000 = common denominator

b. Number of offenses - common denominator = crime rate

Example:

Agency A serves a population of 50,000 and experienced a total of 2,500 Index offenses in 1976.

Index Crime Rate -

a. $\frac{50{,}000 \text{ (population)}}{100{,}000} = 0.50 \text{ (common denominator)}$

b. $\frac{2{,}500 \text{ (number of offenses)}}{0.50 \text{ (common denominator)}} = 5{,}000 \text{ (crime rate)}$

Therefore, the Index crime rate for Agency A in 1976 was 5,000 offenses per 100,000 population.

Example:

Agency B serves a population of 128,750 and experienced a total of 13,500 robbery offenses in 1975.

Robbery rate -

a. $\frac{128,750}{100,000} = 1.2875$

b. $\frac{13,500}{1.2875} = 10,485$

The robbery rate for Agency B in 1975 was 10,485 offenses per 100,000 population.

CALCULATION OF TRENDS

Crime trend information is a presentation of the fluctuation of data from one time period to another. Trends can be computed on the basis of volume (number of offenses, arrests, etc.) or rates (offenses, arrests, etc. per 100,000 population). The trend is then presented as a percent change. The statistical connotation for trend is usually based on data over a substantial length of time such as five or ten years (at least three); however, a comparison can be made between two years, months, weeks, etc.

To compute the trend, always take the difference between the number of offenses or rates of both periods of time, divide by the number for the prior period, and multiply by 100, thus yielding a percent change.

a. Number of offenses (one period) - Number of offenses (the other period) = difference

b. Difference - prior period x 100 = percent change

Example:

Agency A showed an Index crime rate of 1,000 in 1975 and 1,250 in 1976. By visual inspection there was an increase.

Change -

a. 1,250 (1976) - 1,000 (1975) = 250 (difference)

b. $\frac{250 \text{ (difference)}}{1,000 \text{ (prior period 1975)}} \times 100 = 25.0\%$

Thus the Index crime rate for Agency A increased 25 percent from 1975 to 1976.

Example:

Agency B reported 1,850 burglaries in 1970 and 1,365 burglaries in 1975. By visual inspection there was a decrease.

Change -

a. 1,850 - 1,365 = 485

b. $\frac{485}{1,850} \times 100 = 26.2\%$

Thus, the number of burglaries for Agency B showed a decrease of 26.2 percent from 1970 to 1975.

One point is important in calculating change from one period to another. If the number of offenses, arrests, etc. increases from zero for the prior period to a specific number for the current period, no change can be mathematically calculated.

Example:

Agency A showed no burglary offense in 1975 and 100 offenses in 1976. The increase in not +100 percent as may appear but cannot be determined.

Calculation -

a. 100 - 0 = 100

b. $\frac{100}{0}$ = indeterminant number

Another example worth mentioning is the case where the number decreases from a specific number in the prior period to zero in the current period. The change is always -100 percent regardless of the number for the prior period.

Example:

Agency B showed 175 robbery offenses in 1975 compared to no offenses in 1976.

Change -

a. 175 - 0 = 175

b. $\frac{175}{175} \times 100 = 100\%$

Thus the number of robberies for Agency B showed a decrease of 100 percent from 1975 to 1976.

THE CHI-SQUARE TEST

The Chi-square tests presented in Section 2 of this report indicate whether or not two or more frequency distributions are different enough statistically so that they could be considered independent of each other. For example, a Chi-square value is computed for males versus females on the various categories of robbery. Assume the Chi-square value was not significant at the customarily chosen 5 percent level of confidence. A non-significant value of Chi-square indicates that males and females have essentially the same distribution of arrests over the various categories of robbery. That is, the relative proportion of males in each category is the same as the relative proportion of females in the same category. No discussion concerning the calculation of a Chi-square value is presented in this report. There are numerous books available which explain various statistical methods in more detail.

SUMMARY

In 1980, serious crime increased 8 percent in number of offenses and by 4 percent in terms of rate per 100,000 population. Serious crime, known as Index Crime, consists of murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft and arson. Index Crime constituted 50 percent of all reported offenses in 1980. Less serious crime, known as Part II, decreased in total numbers reported and decreased by 4 percent in terms of rate per 100,000 population.

Both total arrests and clearances increased in 1980. Of all Index Offenses, 21 percent were cleared. Arrests increased by 6 percent. This was due to a substantial increase in arrests of adults for Part I Crimes (22%) and an increase for Part I Crimes (7%). Arrests for juveniles decreased in both categories: -.01 percent for Part I Crimes and -9 percent for Part II Crimes.

Highlights of the report are as follows:

Murder: Over the past six years this crime vacillated year by year, i.e., up one year and down the next. It was down in 1979 and up in 1980. While the increase in number was substantial (19.3%) the rate per 100,000 population was still below the 1975 level.

Rape: The rate and number of offenses reported for rape have gone up steadily since 1975, but decreased slightly in 1980. Whether this decrease is temporary or will continue is not known.

Robbery: The pattern for robbery has been similar to that of murder; up one year and down the next since 1975. The year 1980 seemed to be an exception to the pattern. There was an increase two years in a row and the increase in 1980 was substantial, 19.3 percent in offenses reported and 15.4 percent in rate per 100,000 population.

Aggravated Assault: This is another crime which has shown a steady increase since 1975, except for 1980 where a substantial decrease was evidenced. This decrease is difficult to interpret since part of it resulted from a change in classification of some minor assaults to the "Other Assault" category. Nevertheless, there is evidence to suggest assaults were stable during 1980. If the "Aggravated" and "Other Assault" categories are combined, there is a 3.1 percent increase in total reported assaults and a .3 percent decrease in the rate per 100,000 population. An examination of aggravated assault by weapon shows decreases in all categories except firearm, where there is a 2 percent increase.

Burglary: Residential burglary has been declining or leveling off since 1975, but showed an increase in 1980. There was a 12.5 percent increase in offenses reported and an 8.6 percent in rate per 100,000 population. Nonresidential burglary, which has been increasing since 1978, went up again in 1980. It increased 10.5 percent in offenses reported and 6.7 percent in rate per 100,000 population. The rates for both categories of burglary were below the 1975 level, although the total number of offenses is greater than that reported in 1975.

Larceny: Larceny began a decline in both rate and offenses reported in 1975, but started rising again in 1978. In 1980 it increased again and is now above the 1975 level.

Motor Vehicle Theft: Except for the years 1977 and 1978, the rate and offenses reported for this crime have been decreasing since 1975 and continued to decrease in 1980.

Arson: Except for 1978, both the rate and offenses reported for Arson have increased gradually since 1975. This crime increased again in 1980.

Part II Crimes: Crimes which showed notable increases were assaults, forgery-counterfeiting, fraud and prostitution. Crimes with substantial decreases were stolen property, sex offenses, gambling, offenses against the family, liquor violations, disorderly conduct, other offenses and runaway.

OREGON AT-A-GLANCE*

Oregon, central state of the Pacific group, is bounded on the north by Washington, on the east by Idaho, on the south by California and Nevada and on the west by the Pacific Ocean, and lies between 42 degrees and 46 degrees 15 minutes, north latitude; and 116 degrees 45 minutes and 124 degrees 30 minutes, west longtitude.

Oregon originally included Washington, Idaho, and parts of Montana and Wyoming, with an area of 286,541 square miles. The width east and west is 395 miles, and the length north and south is 295 miles. Oregon was admitted to the Union on February 14, 1859, and the 33rd star in the flag was added for the state on July 4, 1859.

SECTION 1

OVERVIEW OF OREGON CRIME REPORTING AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

INTRODUCTION

This is the seventh annual report of criminal offenses and arrests produced by the State of Oregon since the beginning of the Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program (OUCR). OUCR is an incident based reporting program, tailored to the needs and operational procedures of the police agencies in Oregon.

Incident based reporting requires the recording of specific information about each criminal event known to the police. A criminal event may be reported to a police department by a victim or other source or discovered as a result of police operations. Any reported criminal incident that is determined to be unfounded through subsequent police investigation is deleted from the counts.

The Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program requires the reporting of all criminal offenses defined as "Part I and Part II Crimes", and the reporting of all arrests for such offenses. Law enforcement agencies also report the clearance of such offenses by arrests of persons or other means. The number of persons reported as arrested includes all persons reported as physically arrested, summoned or cited by police agencies during 1980.

Reporting agencies submit the recorded data monthly to the Law Enforcement Data System either on provided forms or magnetic tape. The data is then processed in a computerized system and reports reflecting the monthly activity of each agency are produced and returned to the contributor for their use.

As agency reports are processed each month, data required for the FBI National UCR Program is extracted. When all agencies have been processed, a magnetic tape containing UCR data for all Oregon incident reporting agencies is mailed to the FBI.

In Oregon, the offense of Arson was reported as a Part II offense since January 1, 1975. By national decree, Arson became a Part I/Index crime on January 1, 1979.

Definitions of the offenses, clearances, and arrests are included in Appendix A of this report.

REPORTING JURISDICTION

Reported offenses relate to the jurisdiction in which they occur. The arrest and clearance, in every case, is attributed to the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred, even though the arresting agency may not be the department originally reporting the offense. State Police and County Sheriffs have concurrent jurisdiction in all counties of the state. Their reports generally apply to criminal offenses and arrests occurring in those areas outside incorporated cities which have municipal police departments.

DEGREE OF REPORTING

During 1980, offense and related supplementary information, including arrest data, was received from 141 municipal and other police departments, 36 county sheriff departments and the Oregon State Police, who have provided offense and arrest information in all 36 counties. In 1980, the number of agencies participating in the OUCR program represented service to 99 percent of the state's population.

The Portland Police Bureau reported both Part I and Part II information in summary form, and because of the summary method, statistics relating to certain Part II detailed data and type of article stolen do not include that agency.

USE OF OUCR

Only crimes known to the police will be included as part of the official crime rate. Thus, under-reporting of crime can have a significant impact on crime rates and also on the evaluation of the effectiveness of crime reduction programs.

Substantial evidence is contained in reports on criminal victimization surveys which indicates that reporting rates are highly stable among most social groups and across different geographical areas. This suggests reported crime can be a good indicator of crime patterns and trends.

While it is apparent that crime information reported to the police does not provide a complete picture of the crime situation in our society, it is compiled and analyzed because of the following reasons:

a. Reported crime information is used by the police agencies for resource allocation and determining appropriate agency responses to occurrences.

b. Reported crime data, recognized as a portion of the total crime, is, in fact, a highly accurate measurement of occurrences in society that must be addressed by the criminal justice system.

c. This system is based on definitions which are standardized (uniform) across the nation and it is unlikely that it will be appreciably altered in the forseeable future.

INTERJURISDICTIONAL COMPARISONS

Care should be taken in drawing conclusions and making decisions about problems based solely on crime and arrest data as reported by different law enforcement jurisdictions. Factors relating to crime reporting practices, law enforcement policies, population characteristics and attitudes all contribute to variation in reported data.

Some general factors which may affect the amount of crime reported and type of crime committed are:

- Density and size of the community population and the metropolitan area of which it is a part.

- Composition of the population with reference particularly to age.
- Economic status, education, and recreation characteristics of the community population.
- Relative stability of the population, including commuters, seasonal, and other transient types.
- Climate, including seasonal weather conditions, and other geographical variations.
- Religious characteristics of the population.
- Effective strength of the police force.
- Policies of the prosecuting officials and the courts.
- Attitude of the public toward law enforcement problems.
- The administrative and investigative follow-up of the local law enforcement agency, including the degree of adherence to crime reporting standards.

LAW ENFORCEMENT IN OREGON

Municipal police departments have full police powers within their jurisdictions including the investigation of crime, enforcement of state criminal and traffic laws and city ordinances.

County sheriffs exercise general law enforcement authority in their respective counties enforcing state criminal and traffic laws, and county ordinances. Sheriffs departments generally confine their law enforcement services to areas not served by municipal police departments. Sheriffs may provide law enforcement services to incorporated municipalities on a contract basis.

The Oregon State Police have full law enforcement authority. They may conduct criminal investigations and enforce state laws anywhere within the State. However, they generally function outside of incorporated cities except when assistance is requested by a local police agency. State Police have primary responsibility for patrol of interstate freeways, the state highway system, and enforcement of fish and game laws. Occasionally, patrols are also provided on county roads.

The Department of State Police also provides support services to municipal and county departments upon request. These include crime laboratory services, fingerprint identification, criminal records, questioned document examination, polygraph service and specialized investigation teams for arson and narcotics investigations.

Law Enforcement Employees - 1980

The Oregon Uniform Crime Reporting Program also includes the collection of data relating to the number of full-time employed police officers and civilian personnel. There were 5825 full-time law enforcement employees reported in 1980 as illustrated in Table 1. This represents a decrease of 0.2 percent in the total of all personnel in municipal police agencies, sheriffs departments, and the State Police from 1979.

Male employees accounted for 77.1 percent of the total employees. The total number of male employees decreased by 0.7 percent in 1980 while the number of female employees increased by 1.4 percent. Sworn officers accounted for 76.4 percent of the total work force with the remaining 23.6 percent being full-time civilians.

Of the 4,492 total male employees, 94.7 percent were sworn officers and 5.3 percent were civilians. Of the 1,333 total female employees, 14.7 percent were sworn officers and 85.3 percent were civilians. Using the total state population of 2,630,600, the number of law enforcement employees per 1,000 population was 2.2. The number of sworn officers per 1,000 population was 1.69. The number of sworn officers showed a very slight decrease over 1979.

SECTION 2

STATEWIDE OFFENSE AND ARREST DATA

INTRODUCTION

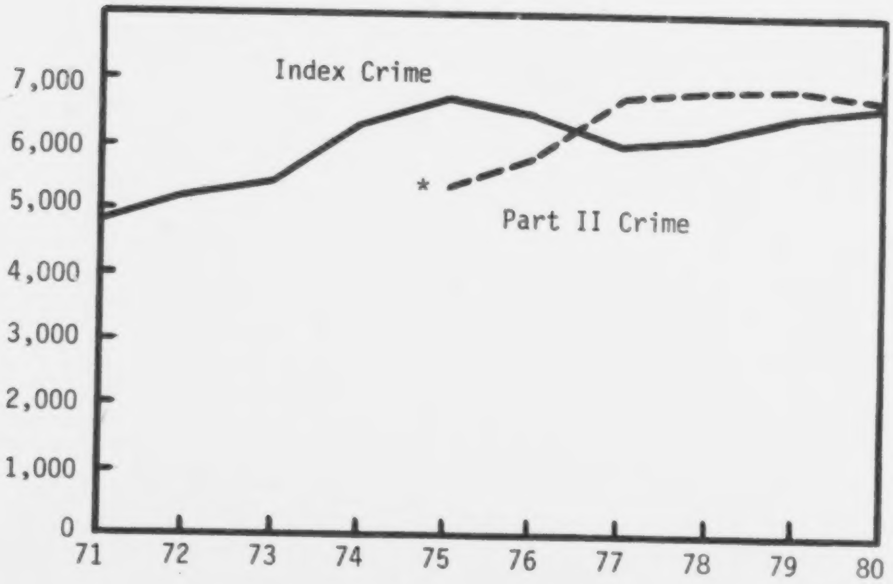
This section presents the number of criminal offenses and arrests reported by police agencies in 1980. The statistics represent the aggregate of all reporting agencies within the state, except when noted, and are arranged in the following four subsections:

1. Overview of offenses.
2. Overview of arrests.
3. Detailed information regarding Index and Part II offenses.
4. Data concerning assaults against police officers.

The statewide offense totals in this section are not identical to those shown in Section 4 of this report. The differences are less than 1/2 of one percent and are the result of two different and separate methods of compiling the data at two different points of time. This difference is not significant enough to affect the overall results.

OVERVIEW OF OFFENSES

- The total crime rate in 1980 was 13,371.8 offenses reported per 100,000 population. This reflects an increase of 0.06 percent over 1979.
- The Index crime rate (6,667.5) increased 4.1 percent.
- The Part II crime rate (6,704.3) decreased 3.6 percent.



*Part II crimes not reported prior to 1975

The 1980 percentage distribution of both Index offenses and Part II (from Table 2) is depicted in the form of a pie chart in Figure 2.

- Larceny represents the largest portion of reported crime in Oregon (30.2%).
- Larceny, burglary, and vandalism together account for 54.6 percent of all reported crime.
- Major violent crime (murder, rape, robbery) account for 1.5 percent.

- Crimes involving theft account for the highest rate of reported crime (6,742 offenses per 100,000 population).
- Theft represents 50.4 percent of all crime and increased in 1980 by 6.4 percent over 1979.

Index Offenses

The 1980 percentage distribution for Index offenses is displayed in Figure 3.

- 175,393 Index crimes were reported to police in 1980 representing 49.9 percent of all crimes reported.
- 7.3 percent of the Index crimes were violent crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault).
- 92.7 percent of the Index crimes were property crimes (burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, arson).

PERCENT DISTRIBUTION

- The Index crime rate (offenses per 100,000 population) was 6,667.5 per 100,000 in 1980--an increase of 4.1 percent over 1979 as presented in Table 4. However, this rate is still lower than that experienced in 1975 (6,679.8).
- The highest increase in Index crime rates was in Murder (+14.0 percent over 1979) while the robbery rate increased by 15.4 percent.
- Decreases were revealed in the categories of rape (-6.8%), aggravated assault (-20.5%) and motor vehicle theft (-10.5%). Part of the decrease in assaults is due to a reclassification of some assaults to the simple assault category, a Part II offense.
- 38,462 arrests were made in 1980 for Index crime--the highest number being for larceny/theft.
- 21.0 percent of the total Index crimes reported were cleared by police.
- The clearance rate for violent crimes was 44.8 percent. The clearance rate for property crimes was 19.2 percent.
- The lowest clearance rate was for arson (8.0%); the highest was for murder (67.2%).

Part II Offenses

- 176,364 Part II crimes were reported by police in 1980--this represents 50.1 percent of all crime reported. (Numbers and rates can be seen on Table 2.)
- There was a slight decrease in the total number of offenses, and a decrease in the overall rate per population.
- The highest volume of Part II crime included: vandalism, DUII, "Other Assaults," and "all other."
- Of the Part II crimes that show a substantial volume, the vandalism rate was down 6.2 percent; the rate of arrests for liquor law violations was down 15.9 percent; arrests for DUII went up 6.4 percent; juvenile runaways went down 14.8 percent; and other (simple) assaults went up 16.7 percent. The rise in assaults is partially due to a reclassification of some assaults from the aggravated assault category to the other assault category.

TABLE 9 - NUMBER OF FEMALES ARRESTED - 1980

Summary - Juvenile/Adult Arrests (Table 10)

A summary of the arrest rates (arrests per 1,000 population) for both juveniles and adults is presented in Table 10 by general offense categories for 1980.

As was observed in 1979, adults committed violent offenses at a rate of over two times that of juveniles. Conversely, the property crime rate for juveniles was twice as high as for adults. Another striking difference is the rate for DUII. It was 0.83 for juveniles and 16.30 for adults.

Figure 4 depicts the median age of persons arrested for each offense category including the median age of persons arrested for total Part I offenses, Part II offenses, and all offenses.

- The median age of persons arrested for all crimes was 21 years of age.
- The median age for Index crimes was 19 years of age.
- The median age for Part II crimes was 23 years of age.
- Lower median ages of 15-18 were evidenced for vandalism and crimes of theft (burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft).

MURDER

- 130 offenses of murder were reported in 1980--up 19.3 percent over 1979.
- Murder accounted for 0.04 percent of all crimes reported and 0.07 percent of Index crime reported in 1980.
- The murder rate (4.9 per 100,000 population) was up from 4.3 in 1979, though still 10.9 percent below the 1975 rate.

The percentage of murders by type of weapon used is shown in Figure 6.

- Of the 130 murders committed in 1980, all were reported by type of weapon.
- Of these 130 murders, 52.3 percent involved a firearm.
- The percentage of murders involving a handgun decreased from 39 percent in 1979 to 31 percent in 1980.

Murder--Victims (Table 11)

The number of murder victims by various age groupings, sex, and race are presented in Table 11.

- 9.4 percent of victims were under 18; 21.9 percent were 18-24; and, 68.8 percent were age 25 and older.
- Male victims accounted for 63.3 percent; females accounted for 36.7 percent.
- 89.8 percent were White; 7.0 percent were Negro; 0.0 percent were Indian; and, 3.1 percent were other races.

Robbery - Location (Table 14)

In 1979 the robbery category of "chain store" was changed nationally and in OUCR to "convenience store." In Oregon, convenience stores are typified by 7-11 and Circle K, etc.

- The largest percentage of reported robberies in 1980 occurred in miscellaneous locations (all other) such as parks, schools, public buildings, professional offices, beaches, lakes, etc.
- Robberies increased in all categories, but most notable are the categories of highway (up 39.3%), commercial business (up 127.2%), residence (up 38.4%) and bank (up 42.1%).
- The mean value of property stolen per robbery incident was $533. Robberies of residences and banks showed the highest mean value: $1,397 and $1,352, respectively.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

- There were 7,546 offenses of aggravated assault reported in 1980--down 17.8 percent from 1979. Part of this change is due to a change in classification of some minor assaults to the "Other Assault" category (a Part II offense).
- Aggravated assault accounted for 2.2 percent of all crime reported and 4.3 percent of Index crime.
- The rate per 100,000 population was 286.9--down 20.5 percent from 1979 and 6.9 percent higher than the rate in 1975.

Aggravated Assault--Type of Weapon Used (Table 16)

- 48.1 percent of the aggravated assault offenses were committed by strong arm only.
- Use of firearms was the only weapons category to show an increase--up 1.7 percent over 1979.

- Residential burglary represented 64.5 percent of total; nonresidential represented 35.5 percent.
- Residential burglaries increased by 12.5 percent; nonresidential offenses were up by 10.5 percent.
- The total value of property stolen was over $31 million with a mean value per offense of $687.
- Increases in daytime residential and unknown time burglaries were greater than the increases in nighttime burglaries. Unknown time burglaries are often during the weekend since they are not discovered for several days.
- About one-third of all burglaries occurred without the use of force, i.e., through an unlocked door or window.

Residential Burglary

- The residential burglary rate was approximately 16.7 per 1,000 residential units (one in 60).*
- The residential burglary rate, based on 100,000 population, was 1,116.5; this rate is 8.6 percent over the 1979 rate per 100,000 population while still 7.1 percent lower than the 1975 rate.

*The rate per residential unit uses information from the 1980 Census. Since comparable figures on residential units are not available for the years 1975-79, comparison with previous years was done on the basis of offenses per 100,000 population.

Nonresidential Burglary

- The nonresidential burglary rate was approximately 246 per 1,000 business units.*
- The nonresidential burglary rate, based on 100,000 population, was 614.0--6.7 percent over the comparable 1979 rate, though still 10.5 percent lower than the 1975 rate.

SECTION 3

OFFENSE DATA BY COUNTY

INTRODUCTION

The following crime statistics are presented by counties to provide information relevant to local planning of criminal justice programs and for comparisons and analysis of trends.

The type and volume of offenses vary from district to district as do the influencing factors that contribute to the commission of crimes and the circumstances surrounding them. Factors such as population density, population characteristics, and geographic location must be considered in attempting to analyze the variance in crime rates among the fourteen districts in Oregon.

NOTE: Errors in the five year county profile tables have been corrected since publication of "Report of Criminal Offenses and Arrests - 1980" published by the Law Enforcement Data System.

SECTION 4

OFFENSES, CLEARANCES AND ARRESTS
BY
DISTRICT, COUNTY, AND AGENCY

The agency statistics concerning Part I and II offenses contained in the following tables was reported to the Oregon UCR program by the individual participating agencies for 1980 and includes totals for each administrative district and county including a total for the Oregon State Police in each county.

The following key is included as an explanation of the abbreviations used throughout the tables:

KEY TO FORMAT ABBREVIATIONS

Months of Reporting	The number of months reported by each individual agency.
Officer Assaults	The number of reported assaults on police officers during the reporting period.
OFF	The number of actual verified offenses or attempts as set forth by UCR guidelines and definitions.
ARR	The number of arrests made during the reporting period. (Includes any arrests made during this period for offenses reported prior to 1/1/80. Includes persons cited, summoned, and notified as well as those taken into physical custody.)
CLR	The number of offenses cleared by arrest or cleared exceptionally during the reporting period. (Includes any clearances made during this time for offenses reported prior to 1/1/80.) These are counts of offenses cleared, not persons arrested.

NOTE: When counting arrests, only those arrests which are made for an agency's "own" cases are counted for UCR purposes. For example, if Agency A makes an arrest on a warrant for Agency B, Agency B counts the arrest for UCR purposes. Agency A does not count it. For this reason, the number of arrests shown in this report will not necessarily agree with the statistics within a department which may show all arrest activity.

APPENDIX A

OFFENSE DEFINITIONS
OREGON UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

APPENDIX A

INTRODUCTION

An offense, under Oregon law (ORS 161.505 - Revised 1974) is defined as: "Conduct for which a sentence to a term of imprisonment or to a fine is provided by any law of this state or by any law or ordinance of a political subdivision of this state. An offense is either a crime or a violation."

A crime is described as an offense for which a sentence of imprisonment is authorized and is either a felony (maximum sentence of more than one year) or a misdemeanor (maximum sentence of not more than one year).

A violation is described as an offense designated by statue to be a violation or if the offense is punishable only by a fine, forfeiture, fine and forfeiture or other civil penalty. Violations are not classified.

UCR DEFINITIONS

The FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting program collects and reports criminal offense data for the nation and in many instances reports data for smaller subdivisions of the country. Essential to the maintaining of uniform and consistent data was the establishment of a standard definition of the offenses used in the program. This insures that offenses with different titles under state and local laws are considered and appropriately counted in UCR.

The offense definitions in this publication conform to those published in the FBI 1975 UCR Handbook.*

Part I Offense Definitions

1.a. Criminal Homicide - Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter

Definition - the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

As a general rule, any death due to a fight, argument, quarrel, assault, or commission of a crime is counted as Homicide. One offense for each person willfully killed by another.

Suicides, accidental deaths, assaults to murder, and attempted murders are not counted as Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter. Suicides are not counted in Uniform Crime Reporting. Some accidental deaths are counted as Manslaughter by Negligence. Assaults to murder and attempted murders are counted as aggravated assaults.

---

*Federal Bureau of Investigation "Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook", United States Department of Justice, January 1975.

1.b. Criminal Homicide - Manslaughter by Negligence

Definition - the killing of another person through gross negligence.

As a general rule, all deaths caused by the gross negligence of another are counted. One offense is scored for each person killed. The death of a person caused by his own negligence is not counted as an actual offense. All traffic deaths are counted and recorded. Those traffic deaths which are found through police investigation to be accidental (without gross negligence) whould be counted as "unfounded."

2. Forcible Rape

Definition - the carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will.

One offense for each person raped or upon whom an assault to rape or attempt to rape has been made. Does not include statutory rape offenses. Statutory rape is defined as the carnal knowledge or the attempted carnal knowledge of a female with no force used and wherein the female victim is under the legal age of consent. Does not include other sex offenses under this category. Statutory rape and other sex offenses are classified and counted as Part II offenses.

3. Robbery

Definition - the taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Robbery is a vicious type of theft in that it takes place in the presence of the victim. The victim, who usually is the owner or person having custody of the property, is directly confronted by the perpetrator and is treatened with force or fear that force will be used. Robbery involves a theft or larceny but aggravated by the element of force or threat of force. If no force or threat of force is used, such as in pocket picking, or purse snatching, the offense must be scored as larceny rather than robbery.

If force is used in the commission of a theft such as in overcoming the active resistance of the victim in a purse snatching, then the offense is to be classified as strong-arm robbery.

4. Aggravated Assault

Definition - an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Assault may be defined as an unlawful attack by one person upon another. Aggravated assault is defined as an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe bodily injury usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or other means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Attempts should be included since it is not necessary that any injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife, or other weapon is used which could and probably would result in serious personal injury if the crime was successfully completed.

The categories of aggravated assault include the commonly entitled offenses of assault with intent to kill or murder; poisoning; assault with a dangerous or deadly weapon; maiming, mayhem, and assault with intent to maim or commit mayhem, assault with explosives; and all attempts to commit the foregoing offenses. Attempt to murder or assault to murder are reported as aggravated assault.

5. Burglary - Breaking or Entering

Definition - the unlawful entry of a structure or dwelling with intent to commit a felony or a theft.

Offenses locally known as burglary (any degree); unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or felony; breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny; housebreaking; safe-cracking; and all attempts at these offenses are counted in UCR as burglary.

6. Larceny - Theft

Definition - the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another.

Larceny and theft mean the same thing in Uniform Crime Reporting. Motor vehicle theft is not included and is counted separately because of the great volume of thefts in that particular theft category.

All thefts which are not part of a robbery, burglary, or motor vehicle theft should be classified in this category regardless of the value of the article stolen. All thefts and attempted thefts are counted.

NOTE: Embezzlement; fraudulent conversion of entrusted property; conversion of goods lawfully possessed by bailees, lodgers, or finders of lost property; obtaining money by false pretenses; larceny by check, larceny by bailee, and check fraud are all to be classified as Part II offenses.

Larceny - thefts are broken down into the following categories:

A. Pocket Picking

Definition - the theft of articles from a person by stealth where the victim usually does not become immediately aware of the theft.

The theft includes removal of such items as wallets from women's purses or handbags and men's pockets and usually occurs in a crowd, public conveyance, or other similar situation to disguise the activity. Theft from a person in a conscious or unconscious state, including drunks, is included. However, if the victim is manhandled or force beyond simple jostling is used to overcome the resistance of the victim, the offense becomes a strong-arm robbery.

B. Purse Snatching

Definition - the grabbing or snathing of a purse, handbag, etc., from the custody of an individual.

If more force is used than is actually necessary to snatch the purse from the grasp of the person, then a strong-arm robbery has occurred.

C. Shoplifting

Definition - the theft by a person other than an employee of good or merchandise exposed for sale.

This violation assumes that the offender had legal access to the premises and thus no trespass or unlawful entry was involved. This category includes thefts of merchandise displayed outside a building as part of the stock in trade such as in department stores, hardware stores, supermarkets, fruit stands, gas stations, etc.

D. Thefts From Motor Vehicles (Except Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts and Accessories)

Definition - the theft of articles from a motor vehicle, whether locked or unlocked.

This type of larceny includes thefts from automobiles, trucks, truck trailers, buses, or motorcycles. It also includes thefts from any area in the automobile or other vehicle including the truck, glove compartment, or other enclosure. Some of the items included in this category of theft are cameras, suitcases, wearing apparel, packages, etc.

Certain state statutes might interpret Thefts From Motor Vehicles as burglaries. For Uniform Crime Reporting these thefts must be scored as larceny.

E. Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts and Accessories

Definition - the theft of any part or accessory attached to the interior or exterior of a motor vehicle in a manner which would make the part an attachment to the vehicle or necessary for the operation of the vehicle.

This category would include theft of motors, transmissions, radios, heaters, hubcaps and wheel covers, manufacturers emblems, license plates, radio antennas, side-view mirrors, gasoline, tape decks, etc. Theft of items being transported in the vehicle should be classified in Category D, Thefts From Motor Vehicles.

F. Theft of Bicycles

Definition - the unlawful taking of any bicycle, tandem bicycle, unicycle, etc.

G. Theft From Buildings

Definition - the theft from within a building which is open to the general public and where the offender has legal access.

Not included are shoplifting and thefts from coin-operated devices or machines as these offenses should be scored in their separate categories of larceny. The category of Theft From Buildings includes thefts from such places as churches, restaurants, schools, libraries, public buildings, and other public and professional offices during the hours when such facilities are open to the public.

Theft from coin-operated machines or pay telephone boxes within open buildings should be counted as Thefts From Coin-Operated Devices or Machines.

H. Theft From Coin-Operated Device or Machine

Definition - a theft from a device or machine which is operated or activated by the use of a coin.

Some examples of such machines are candy, cigarette, and food vending machines; telephone coin-boxes; parking meters; laundry machines; pinball machines; washers and dryers located in laundromats where no breaking or illegal entry of the building is involved.

I. All Other Larceny - Theft Not Specifically Classified

Definition - all thefts which do not fit the definitions of the specific categories of larceny listed above.

This category includes theft from fenced enclosures, boats, and airplanes. Theft of animals, lawnmowers, lawn furniture, handtools, farm and construction equipment are also included, where no breaking or entering of a structure is involved.

The illegal entry of a tent, tent trailer, or travel trailer used for recreation purposes followed by a theft, felony, or attempt to commit a felony should be counted as larceny.

7. Motor Vehicle Theft

Definition - the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Included in this classification is the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle which is defined for this program as a self-propelled vehicle that runs on the surface and not on rails. Examples of motor vehicles are automobiles, trucks, buses, motorcycles, motor scooters, snowmobiles, etc.

Part II Offense Definitions

8. Other Assaults

Assaults and attempted assaults which do not result in serious or aggravated injury to the victim are included as other assaults.

9. Arson

Included are all violations of state laws and municipal ordinances relating to arson and attempted arson - any willful or malicious burning or attempts to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, church, college, jail, meeting house, public building or any building, ship or other vessel, motor vehicle or aircraft; contents of buildings, personal property of another, goods or chattels, crops, trees, fences, gates, grain, vegetable products, lumber, woods, cranberry bogs, marshes, meadows, etc.

If personal injury results from the arson, the situation would include an offense of aggravated assault. In the event a death results from arson, the incident would include murder.

10. Forgery and Counterfeiting

Forgery and counterfeiting are treated as allied offenses. In this class are placed all offenses dealing with the making, alterning, uttering or possessing, with intent to defraud, anything false in the semblance of that which is true.

This offense covers a wide range of malicious behavior directed at property such as: Cutting auto tires, drawing obscene pictures on public restroom walls, smashing windows, destroying school records, tipping over gravestones, defacing library books, etc.

15. Weapons; Carrying, Possessing, etc.

This class deals with weapon offenses regulatory in nature.

16. Prostitution and Commercialized Vice

This class is limited to the driving or operating of any vehicle or common carrier while drunk or under the influence of liquor or narcotics.

22. Liquor Laws

With the exception of "driving under the influence" (Offense No. 21), liquor law violations, state or local, are placed in this class.

23. Drunkenness*

Included in this class are all offenses of drunkenness or intoxication, with the exception of "driving under the influence" (Offense No. 21). Detoxification cases are not recorded here.

24. Disorderly Conduct

In this class are placed all charges of committing a breach of the peace.

25. Vagrancy*

Persons prosecuted on the charge of being a "suspicious character or person, etc." are included in this class.

26. All Other Offenses

Included in this class are every other state or local offense except traffic, not included in offenses 1 to 25.

27. Suspicion*

While "suspicion" is not an offense, it is grounds for many arrests in those jurisdictions where the law permits.

28. Curfew and Loitering Laws - (Juveniles)

Counted are all arrests made by departments for violation of local curfew or loitering ordinances were such laws exist.

29. Runaway - (Juveniles)

For purposes of UCR, this category includes apprehensions for protective custody as defined by local statute.

*NOTE: Suspicion is not a criminal offense in Oregon. Drunkenness and vagrancy were repealed by the 1975 Oregon Legislature and are not longer criminal offenses by statute.

Arrest Definition

For the purposes of UCR, adult persons are considered "ARRESTED": whether by actual physical arrest or the issuance of misdemeanor citations.

Juveniles are considered "ARRESTED" when the circumstances are such that if he or she were an adult an arrest would be made or a misdemeanor citations issued.

Clearance Definition

Clearances by Arrest

An offense is "cleared by arrest" or solved for crime reporting purposes when at least one person is:

1. Arrested;
2. Charged with the commission of the offense; and
3. Turned over to the court for prosecution.

The prosecution can follow arrest, court summons, or police notice. A clearance by arrest can be claimed when the offender is a person under 18 years of age and is cited to appear in juvenile court or before other juvenile authorities. This clearance can be taken even though no physical arrest was made.

The number of offenses and not the number of persons arrested are counted in the clearances recorded.

Exceptional Clearances

In certain situations, police are not able to follow the three outlined steps under "clearance by arrest" to clear offenses known to them. In many instances, police have exhausted all leads and have done everything else possible in order to clear a case. If the following questions can all be answered "yes" the offense can then be cleared exceptionally.

1. Has the investigation definitely established the identify of the offender?
2. Is there enough information to support an arrest, charge, and turning over to the court for prosecution?
3. Do you know the exact location of the offender so that you could take him into custody now?
4. Is there some reason outside the police control that stops you from arresting, charging, and prosecuting the offender?

Examples of exceptional Clearances:

An offense can be exceptionally cleared when it falls into one of the following categories:

a. Suicide of the offender (the person responsible is dead).
b. Double murder (two persons kill each other).
c. Deathbed confession (the person responsible dies after making the confession).
d. Offender killed by police or citizen.
e. Confession by offender already in your custody or serving sentence (this is actually a variation of a true clearance by arrest - you would not "apprehend" the offender but in most situations like this the offender would be prosecuted on a new charge).
f. An offender prosecuted in another city for a different offense by state or local authorities or prosecuted in another city or state by the federal government for an offense which may be the same (you attempt to return him for prosecution, but the other jurisdiction will not release to you).
g. Extradition is denied.
h. The victim refuses to cooperate in the prosecution (this does not "unfound" the offense and the answer must still be "yes" to the first three questions above).
i. For some reason outside your control, an offender is prosecuted for a less serious charge than that for which you arrested him (such as a charge of reckless driving for a negligent manslaughter offense - the offense on Return A remains the same).
j. The handling of a juvenile offender either orally or by written notice to parents in instances involving minor offenses such as petty larceny.

It is recognized that departmental policy in various police agencies permit the discontinuance of investigation and the closing administratively of cases in which all investigation has been completed. The administrative closing of a case or the "clearing" of it be departmental policy, under UCR reporting, does not permit the clearance of an offense by exceptional clearance unless the four questions mentioned above can all be answered "yes." The recovery of proeprty does not give a reason to clear the case for UCR purposes. The clearance of a case for UCR purposes should have no affect on whether or not the department has internal policies as to "closing" a case or discontinuing active investigation on a case.

Examples of exceptional Clearances:

An offense can be exceptionally cleared when it falls into one of the following categories:

a. Suicide of the offender (the person responsible is dead).
b. Double murder (two persons kill each other).
c. Deathbed confession (the person responsible dies after making the confession).
d. Offender killed by police or citizen.

APPENDIX C

STATISTICAL METHODS

APPENDIX C

STATISTICAL METHODS

CALCULATION OF CRIME RATES

Quite often it is desired to compare the volume of crime occurrence, either totally or by individual offense, over a period of time for a selected group of agencies or jurisdictions. The geographical area being studied will undoubtedly consist of law enforcement agencies of various strengths and serving widely varying sizes of population. An agency equalizing factor must be developed, or in other terms, a common denominator is needed. To arrive at a valid comparison, the concept of rate is utilized.

The crime rate is defined as the number of offenses occurring per 100,000 population over the period of one year. The common denominator for any community, county, district, or state is obtained by dividing the population represented by 100,000. Once this denominator is determined, it becomes a relative constant until such time as the population of the community, county, district, or state changes appreciably. The crime rate can be calculated then by dividing the number of offenses by the denominator.

a. Population - 100,000 = common denominator

b. Number of offenses - common denominator = crime rate

Example:

Agency A serves a population of 50,000 and experienced a total of 2,500 Index offenses in 1976.

Index Crime Rate -

a. $\dfrac{50{,}000 \text{ (population)}}{100{,}000} = 0.50 \text{ (common denominator)}$

b. $\dfrac{2{,}500 \text{ (number of offenses)}}{0.50 \text{ (common denominator)}} = 5{,}000 \text{ (crime rate)}$

Therefore, the Index crime rate for Agency A in 1976 was 5,000 offenses per 100,000 population.

Example:

Agency B serves a population of 128,750 and experienced a total of 13,500 robbery offenses in 1975.

Robbery rate -

a. $\frac{128{,}750}{100{,}000} = 1.2875$

b. $\frac{13{,}500}{1.2875} = 10{,}485$

The robbery rate for Agency B in 1975 was 10,485 offenses per 100,000 population.

CALCULATION OF TRENDS

Crime trend information is a presentation of the fluctuation of data from one time period to another. Trends can be computed on the basis of volume (number of offenses, arrests, etc.) or rates (offenses, arrests, etc. per 100,000 population). The trend is then presented as a percent change. The statistical connotation for trend is usually based on data over a substantial length of time such as five or ten years (at least three); however, a comparison can be made between two years, months, weeks, etc.

To compute the trend, always take the difference between the number of offenses or rates of both periods of time, divide by the number for the prior period, and multiply by 100, thus yielding a percent change.

a. Number of offenses (one period) - Number of offenses (the other period) = difference

b. Difference - prior period x 100 = percent change

Example:

Agency A showed an Index crime rate of 1,000 in 1975 and 1,250 in 1976. By visual inspection there was an increase.

Change -

a. 1,250 (1976) - 1,000 (1975) = 250 (difference)

b. $\frac{250 \text{ (difference)}}{1{,}000 \text{ (prior period 1975)}} \times 100 = 25.0\%$

Thus the Index crime rate for Agency A increased 25 percent from 1975 to 1976.

Example:

Agency B reported 1,850 burglaries in 1970 and 1,365 burglaries in 1975. By visual inspection there was a decrease.

Change -

a. 1,850 - 1,365 = 485

b. $\frac{485}{1,850} \times 100 = 26.2\%$

Thus, the number of burglaries for Agency B showed a decrease of 26.2 percent from 1970 to 1975.

One point is important in calculating change from one period to another. If the number of offenses, arrests, etc. increases from zero for the prior period to a specific number for the current period, no change can be mathematically calculated.

Example:

> Agency A showed no burglary offense in 1975 and 100 offenses in 1976. The increase in not +100 percent as may appear but cannot be determined.

Calculation -

a. 100 - 0 = 100

b. $\frac{100}{0}$ = indeterminant number

Another example worth mentioning is the case where the number decreases from a specific number in the prior period to zero in the current period. The change is always -100 percent regardless of the number for the prior period.

Example:

> Agency B showed 175 robbery offenses in 1975 compared to no offenses in 1976.

Change -

a. 175 - 0 = 175

b. $\frac{175}{175} \times 100 = 100\%$

Thus the number of robberies for Agency B showed a decrease of 100 percent from 1975 to 1976.

THE CHI-SQUARE TEST

The Chi-square tests presented in Section 2 of this report indicate whether or not two or more frequency distributions are different enough statistically so that they could be considered independent of each other. For example, a Chi-square value is computed for males versus females on the various categories of robbery. Assume the Chi-square value was not significant at the customarily chosen 5 percent level of confidence. A non-significant value of Chi-square indicates that males and females have essentially the same distribution of arrests over the various categories of robbery. That is, the relative proportion of males in each category is the same as the relative proportion of females in the same category. No discussion concerning the calculation of a Chi-square value is presented in this report. There are numerous books available which explain various statistical methods in more detail.
